

Restaurant BelleVue

History of the Rheinhotel

In 1986, the rooms of today's hotel were opened as a boarding house as part of the completion of the Rheincenter. This was intended to provide commuters to Switzerland with inexpensive and medium-term accommodation.

In 1990 the boarding house became the Hotel Maximilian. The rooms were initially used unchanged and still have a small kitchen.

*In 2015, the hotel was extended by 80 new rooms.
4* rooms and the opening of the restaurant BelleVue.*

The restaurant got its name from the beautiful view from its own outdoor terrace on the 6th floor, from which you have a view of the Black Forest with the Blauen and Tüllinger mountains as well as the Vosges and the Rhine.

The restaurant BelleVue offers its guests a regional cuisine with international influences.
